

A Symposium on African American Men and Women and the Movement to End Domestic Violence

“Sensitivity and Competence: Understanding Domestic Violence and the African American”

Engage with practitioners in critical discussions about domestic violence counseling and treatment. In this symposium, you will learn best practices and researched based strategies for working with African American Men and Women.

Friday, May 7, 2010 ♦ 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Portland Convention Center

Featured Speakers

---

Tony Porter is the Co-Founder of A CALL TO MEN, a leading national men's organization addressing domestic and sexual violence prevention and the promotion of healthy manhood. He is an educator and activist working in the social justice arena for over twenty years. He is nationally recognized for his effort to end men's violence against women.

---

---

Dr. Carolyn West is a nationally recognized psychologist and professor who focuses on intimate partner violence and sexual assault, with a special focus on African American women. She works to empower, educate, and equip professionals with the skills to provide culturally sensitive services to victims/survivors during their healing journey.

Hosted Reception Thursday Evening, May 6, 2010
Symposium Registration Fee $175.00

Presented by SOVALTI & Strong Counseling Service. For more information, contact Tim Logan at 503-936-2904 or sovalti3@gmail.com

Submitted to Oregon Chapter NASW for CE Approval